Capgemini Wins Google Cloud Services Partner of the Year Award for EMEA

Paris, June 28, 2022 – Capgemini today announced that it has received the 2021 Google Cloud Services Partner of the Year Award - Europe, Middle East and Africa. This is the 2nd time that Capgemini has been recognized by Google Cloud.

Capgemini was recognized for the company's achievements in the Google Cloud ecosystem, helping joint clients in the Financial Services, Retail, Automotive and Public Sectors to accelerate their cloud transformation journeys. With the right combination of Google Cloud solutions, Capgemini has helped clients to reinvent their legacy systems, become more data-driven, transform their employee and customer experience, thereby driving sustainable outcomes.

Jean-Philippe Bol, Head of Operations Transformation and Industrialization, Executive Sponsor of the Google Partnership and Group Executive Board Member at Capgemini said, "As a Google Cloud partner, we continue to future-proof businesses across sectors by maximizing their cloud transformation investments, driving increased agility and fostering innovation. Together with Google Cloud, we are confident in our ability to drive long term business value for clients and this award further underscores this focus."

"We're excited to recognize Capgemini as our Services Partner of the Year EMEA based on their rich relationships with customers and excellent services that help customers implement Google Cloud solutions," said Victor Morales, Managing Director, Global System Integrators Partnerships, Google Cloud. "Capgemini has played an important role in helping businesses build and innovate in the cloud over this past year, and we're excited to expand our work together to help customers as they move along their digital transformation journeys."
