Capgemini named MuleSoft's Global Practice Development Partner of the Year, recognised for six regional awards

Capgemini recognised for helping organisations to unlock and unify data with Anypoint Platform to innovate and go digital, faster

Sydney, March 30, 2021 – Capgemini announced today that it has been named the Global Practice Development Partner of the Year 2021 by MuleSoft, provider of the world's #1 integration and API platform. Capgemini also claimed six regional awards in EMEA, LatAm, Australia and New Zealand, Asia, and Japan. Overall, Capgemini was recognised for its commitment to helping customers unlock and unify data with an API-led approach to deliver connected customer experiences, faster, in a digital-first world.

"We are pleased to have been recognised as winners by MuleSoft in the Global Practice Development Partner of the Year category, along with six regional categories. Our close collaboration with MuleSoft has led to many joint successes across industries," said Jay Rumwell, Global Partner Executive for Salesforce, at Capgemini. "Capgemini enables our clients to deliver better connected customer experiences with MuleSoft."

"Our clients understand the power of connected experiences and together we are driving value from API-led connectivity. For all organisations, 2020 has accelerated the urgency to innovate faster and deliver to the expectations of customers and employees. Our recognition as MuleSoft ANZ Partner of the Year 2021 highlights Capgemini's proven integration knowledge and industry experience to deliver quality so that our clients get the future they want," said Kaylene O'Brien, Managing Director for Capgemini Australia and New Zealand.

According to MuleSoft's State of Business and IT Innovation report, 82% of business users believe employees need quick and easy access to business data to do their jobs effectively and remain productive, yet less than one-third think their organisation is very effective in connecting and using data from multiple sources to drive business value. Capgemini enables organisations to develop a Center of Enablement that empowers a self-service approach to integration across teams – scaling innovation and accelerating the speed of business.

"Every company in every industry is under greater pressure to deliver faster, become more agile, and innovate at scale. Our MuleSoft partner ecosystem brings together trusted advisors that are fueling digital transformation for customers, empowering them to quickly unlock and unify data – no matter where it resides – to deliver seamless connected experiences," said Dan McAllister, Senior Vice President of Global Alliances and Channels, MuleSoft. "We are proud of our growing MuleSoft partner ecosystem and excited to celebrate their success and dedication to delivering business outcomes for customers around the world."

Capgemini has been a global MuleSoft integration partner since 2015 and has more than 1,000 certified practitioners. The MuleSoft Partner Program consists of organisations that provide consulting and services for MuleSoft's Anypoint Platform™. With skills and expertise that leverage API-led connectivity, MuleSoft partners help customers across industries to unlock business capabilities and become composable enterprises, delivering innovations faster.
