Capgemini wins three MuleSoft Partner of the Year Awards in Asia, ANZ and the JAPAC region

Capgemini was recognised for its ability to help organisations integrate their data faster and create seamless customer experiences

Sydney, April 4, 2022 – Capgemini today announced that it has won three 2022 MuleSoft Partner of the Year Awards, including ASIA Partner of the Year, ANZ Partner of the Year and JAPAC Practice Development Partner of the Year.

Capgemini has won the Asia and ANZ Partner of the Year awards for the second consecutive time, while it's the sixth consecutive year that Capgemini has been named JAPAC Practice Development Partner of the Year.

Olaf Pietschner, Chief Executive Officer of Capgemini in APAC and member of the Group Executive Committee said, "I strongly believe that innovation is born through collaboration, and we are delighted to be recognised once again at the MuleSoft Partner of the Year Awards. These awards further underline our capability of driving end-to-end digital transformation for clients. Capgemini has more than 1,000 certified MuleSoft practitioners globally and we are the leading certified partner in the region. Together with MuleSoft, we are accelerating digital transformation and rethinking customer experience for our clients."

The MuleSoft Partner of the Year Awards are presented annually to recognise their top-performing partners in the Americas, APAC, EMEA, and JAPAC for the scaling of their team of MuleSoft experts through training and certification programs, driving customer growth, and delivering business outcomes for clients. Capgemini has been recognised for its leading role in helping businesses drive speed, agility and efficiency through their digital systems and, most importantly, to reimagine their client, employee and partner experiences.

Rob Thorne, Senior Vice President, MuleSoft Asia Pacific & Japan said, "Congratulations Capgemini for another incredible year. We are thrilled to recognise the team at Capgemini as partner of the year in ANZ and Asia for the second year in a row. Our mutually aligned, values-based partnership continues to go from strength to strength. Capgemini continues to accelerate customer outcomes by leveraging their expertise and experience with the MuleSoft platform. I'm also pleased to recognise the team as the JAPAC Practice Development Partner of the year for the sixth year running. Our joint customers benefit from your commitment and continued investment in delivery excellence."

Capgemini has been a global MuleSoft integration partner since 2015 and has been consistently recognised among MuleSoft's top partners globally as the two businesses continue to support companies to transform their products and services through technology.
