Capgemini Selected by Love's Travel Stops & Country Stores, Inc., for Major SAP Implementation Project

Capgemini led project designed to build a foundation for continued growth and standardize business processes

New York, October 7, 2013 – Capgemini, one of the world's foremost providers of consulting, technology and outsourcing services, today announced that leading convenience store company Love's Travel Stops & Country Stores, has awarded the firm a contract to lead a major SAP implementation project. The nine month project will enable Love's to take advantage of the new SAP Business Suite on HANA, giving it robust finance and reporting capabilities while enabling it to manage future growth.

Capgemini was awarded the contract after a competitive tender process, recognizing its expertise in successful technology integrations across the retail industry. SAP Business Suite on HANA is the latest addition to the comprehensive SAP solution set offered by Capgemini, supported by its 13,500 SAP practitioners who collaborate with clients across the complete SAP lifecycle: licensing, implementation, hosting, and application management, with a focus on delivering value.

"The Love's Travel Stops project represents a growing trend among retail companies across the country and around the globe looking to take advantage of SAP's platform to enhance business decision making," said Nona Cusick, vice president, Capgemini.

"We've been at the forefront of the travel stop industry because of our unwavering commitment to always seek out new ways to serve our customers and improve our business," said Ginny Webb, vice president, Information Technology, Love's Travel Stops. "With Capgemini's support and capabilities, we're staying true to our commitment by implementing a next-generation platform that will be an integral component to our future growth."
