Capgemini positioned as a Leader in Gartner's 2020 Magic Quadrant for IT Services for Communications Service Providers, Worldwide

Paris, September 18, 2020 – Capgemini today announced that it has been positioned as a Leader in Gartner's 2020 "Magic Quadrant for IT Services for Communications Service Providers, Worldwide", for completeness of vision and ability to execute. The Gartner Magic Quadrant evaluated a total of 12 service providers for a broad range of IT services for communications service providers (CSP) worldwide.

"We are very pleased with Gartner's recognition of Capgemini as a Leader for communications service providers worldwide. We believe this recognition underlines our ability to secure and accelerate our clients' transformations with industry-specific capabilities and solutions, spanning from strategy and innovation through to build and operations. In our view, the future for CSP's is to build a frictionless foundation to grow connected life and business, and to turn to a digital operating model leveraging the full power of data, across a whole organization and entire portfolio," said Jacques Assaraf, Global Head of the Telecom, Media & Technology sector at Capgemini. "With the integration of Altran, we are strengthening our ability to support our clients in building innovative network solutions through open radio access network, core transport network, edge and cloud capabilities."
