Capgemini signs agreement with Vår Energi to accelerate its digital transformation

Paris and Oslo, 10 December 2019 – Capgemini today announced that it has signed a new contract with Vår Energi, the largest, independent oil and gas exploration and production company on the Norwegian continental shelf¹. Under the agreement, Capgemini will conduct a large transformation program, including delivery of digital services, to help Vår Energi accelerate its digital transformation in line with its business objectives.

Capgemini will mobilize all entities of the Group, including Capgemini Invent, to shape and deliver digital projects across Vår Energi's entire operations to enhance safety, improve performance and modernize ways of working.

Capgemini was selected after a competitive tender process because of its end-to-end digital capabilities, proven track record in digital transformation at scale, strong local presence, oil and gas capabilities and trusted ecosystem of technology partners.

"We are very pleased that Vår Energi has selected Capgemini as its long-term partner to shape and deliver its digital transformation journey. This partnership will enable Vår Energi's digital vision, help to ensure safe operations and increased competitiveness through digital opportunities with demonstrated value," says Jens Middborg, Country Manager at Capgemini in Norway.

Capgemini's team of skilled digital experts in Norway and its Global Center of Excellence for Oil and Gas, will support Vår Energi's digital transformation through innovation coupled with Capgemini's agile delivery model and a "one team" approach.
