Capgemini named a “Leader” in the Everest Group PEAK Matrix for Data and Analytics Service Providers 2021

Paris, August 27, 2021 – Capgemini today announced that it has been positioned as a Leader in the Everest Group PEAK Matrix Assessment for Data and Analytics (D&A) Service providers in 2021; it’s the third consecutive year Capgemini has achieved this position. The report assesses 29 leading global D&A service providers on their market impact, overall vision, and capabilities.

The Everest Group PEAK Matrix report highlighted Capgemini’s leadership in the following areas:

- Wide-ranging D&A offerings across the entire value chain, supported by a strategy focusing on developing offers for emerging areas, such as 890 by Capgemini and Artificial Data Amplifier
- A good balance in global delivery capabilities helping to optimize delivery costs and leading to competitive costs for clients
- Strong focus on upskilling the talent pool along with a broad range of industry-focused Artificial Intelligence (AI) use cases

Zhiwei Jiang, CEO of the Insights and Data Global Business Line at Capgemini said, "In today's rapidly evolving business ecosystem, data and trusted AI needs to be infused at the core of every organization to enable data-driven decision making. This helps organizations stay resilient, and creates opportunities for sustainable growth. With our highly skilled talent, our innovative and customizable solutions, and our practical, scalable implementation approach, we provide best-in-class solutions for clients, enabling them to navigate disruptions and stay ahead of the curve. Our recognition as a Leader in the Everest Group PEAK Matrix further highlights our ability to provide trusted Data, AI & Analytics solutions to clients."

Vishal Gupta, Vice President, Everest Group, commented, "Capgemini's deep domain expertise combined with its broad array of D&A solutions and proprietary offerings resonate well with the clients. Capgemini's high-quality data science team, optimized talent delivery strategy, and price competitiveness are regarded as real differentiators."
