Capgemini ranked as a 'Leader' for Salesforce.com Implementation Partners by Independent Research Firm

Paris, 2 July 2015 – Capgemini, one of the world's foremost providers of consulting, technology and outsourcing services, today announced it has been named as a Leader in an independent report on Salesforce Implementation Partners by Forrester Research, Inc.

Capgemini was among the 13 vendors identified in The Forrester Wave™: Salesforce Implementation Partners, Q2 2015, evaluated against a set of 36 criteria to emerge as one of the leading Salesforce implementation partners. Capgemini, as a Salesforce partner has “strong experience in Financial Services and CPG and Retail Sectors.” The report states that “Capgemini also brings capabilities for digital transformation, and they have led numerous business transformation projects based on Salesforce.”

Jean Lassignardie, Corporate Vice President and Group Head of Salesforce.com Expert and Transformation Services at Capgemini said: “We are very proud to be named a leader by Forrester. As a Global Strategic Alliance Partner of Salesforce, we believe this recognition is significant to demonstrate our joint initiatives towards driving digital transformation, enriched customer experience and effective cloud strategy for our clients globally.”

Capgemini is a leading Global Strategic Cloud Alliance and platinum partner with Salesforce.com, delivering a portfolio of integrated services that combines its technology and industry expertise in Digital Transformation, domain and platform technology. Capgemini's association with Salesforce has helped many enterprises improve customer and supplier interaction through market-leading digital transformation and cloud migration solutions and adapt to market demands faster.
