

Capgemini positioned as a Leader in the 2020 ISG Provider Lens™ Life Sciences Digital Services Global Report

Paris, May 05, 2021 – Capgemini announced today that it has been positioned as a Leader by the Information Services Group \(ISG\), a leading global technology research and advisory firm, in its report "ISG Provider Lens™ 2020 – Life Sciences Digital Services." The report evaluated the portfolio attractiveness and competitive strength of 25 service providers across the globe and named Capgemini a Leader in all three major quadrants: Clinical Development, Patient Engagement, and Manufacturing Supply Chain.

Capgemini was named as a Leader in the 'Clinical Development Digital Transformation Services' quadrant for its strengths, including a well-structured and comprehensive solution portfolio for drug development, highly capable analytics solutions, and a global approach for developments. In the 'Patient Engagement Digital Transformation Services' quadrant report, Capgemini was placed as a Leader by ISG for having a framework for Software-as-a-Medical-Device, powerful preconfigured solutions around the medical data of patients, and rich experience in utilization of consumer devices for connected health solutions. ISG also recognized Capgemini as a Leader in the 'Manufacturing Supply Chain Digital Transformation Services' quadrant report for its key strengths, including a comprehensive solution portfolio for the digital transformation of manufacturing, coverage of engineering related functionalities, and having a well-balanced global delivery model.

"Unprecedented challenges caused by COVID-19 coupled with multiple environmental challenges are pushing the envelope of digital innovation for Life Sciences organizations. Capgemini with its highly attractive product and service offering and a very strong market and competitive position has strong capabilities to help enterprises to meet these changing demands across the entire Life Sciences lifecycle," said Rainer Suletzki, Senior Advisor at ISG.

Olivier Zitoun, Global Head of Life Sciences at Capgemini said, "We are delighted to be recognized as a Leader across all three major quadrants of the 2020 ISG Provider Lens™ Life Sciences Digital Services Report. This recognition confirms Capgemini's unique positioning to enable our clients to unlock the potential of Intelligent Industry across the Life Sciences value chain. By leveraging a strong combination of our rich industry experience, deep product engineering, R&D and best-in-class technology expertise, we help life sciences companies to innovate and differentiate in this dynamic market space."

The "ISG Provider Lens™ 2020 – Life Sciences Digital Services" report analyzes the relevant service providers in the global market, based on a multi-phased research and analysis process.
