Capgemini recognized in the Winner's Circle by HfS Blueprint Report : Managed Security Services 2017

Paris, April 6, 2017 - Capgemini, a global leader in consulting, technology and outsourcing services, announced that it has been positioned in the Winner's Circle in the HfS Blueprint Report: Managed Security Services 2017. The report focused on identifying relevant differentials between Managed Security Services providers in two main categories: innovation and execution. It highlights Capgemini's strengths in the production of multi-tiered SOC delivery and service models, as well as in the integration of security into broader infrastructure services.

According to the HfS Research report, Capgemini is positioned in the Winner's Circle based on its pricing flexibility and scope of services. The company has the ability to execute well on a broad set of capabilities while focusing on emerging issues such as predictive analytics and crafting differentiated thought leadership in the market. The report states that Capgemini has productized easy to understand tiered SOC models, dependent on clients service requirements and budget.

Christine Ferrusi Ross, Analyst at HfS Research: "Capgemini's approach to security goes beyond "protect the perimeter" to help clients guard themselves in a connected economy. Potential buyers will also appreciate the firm's structured set of offerings that make it easier to match services to specific needs."

"Cybersecurity is a key enabler to digital transformation and the implementation of trusted cloud services. We have therefore invested heavily in ensuring that our Managed Security Service offering is tailored to the diverse needs of our broad client portfolio," said Mike Turner, Cybersecurity Global Chief Operating Officer at Capgemini. "Placement by HfS in the 'Winner's Circle' is recognition that we offer Managed Security Services which are business relevant; responsive to the changing threat landscape and afford data protection and customer experience the highest priority."

The report evaluates providers on their ability to help clients develop digital trust and become a differentiator in customer experiences. Capgemini's multi-tiered SOC strategy is a real differentiator in this market and it highlights the company's options to fit multiple client needs and pricing structures.
