NEWS ALERT

Lucia Sinapi-Thomas is appointed Deputy Chief Financial Officer of the Capgemini Group

Paris, 28 March 2013 – Aiman Ezzat, Group Chief Financial Officer of the Capgemini Group, one of the world's foremost providers of consulting, technology and outsourcing services has appointed Lucia Sinapi-Thomas as Deputy Chief Financial Officer of the Group.

Lucia Sinapi-Thomas started her career as a tax and business lawyer in 1986, before joining Capgemini in 1992 as Group Tax Advisor. Since 1999, she is also in charge of Corporate Finance and Treasury. In 2005, she becomes a member of Group Review Board in charge of Business Risk Management and Insurance. She is also in charge of Investors Relations between 1999 and 2005.

Elected as representative of employee shareholders, she has been appointed as a member of Cap Gemini Board in May 2012.

Lucia Sinapi-Thomas graduated from ESSEC business school (86) and Paris Law University (88), was admitted to the Paris bar (89), and has a financial analyst degree (SFAF 97).

"With a unique combination of insight on Group business and financial expertise, Lucia is a key asset in the Group Finance Department" says Aiman Ezzat.
