Capgemini positioned as a High Performer in HfS blueprint report for Engineering Services Outsourcing

Paris, 11 August 2015, Capgemini, one of the world's foremost providers of consulting, technology and outsourcing services, today announced it has been positioned as a 'High Performer' in HfS's inaugural blueprint report for Engineering Services Outsourcing. HfS has highlighted Capgemini's expertise in Aerospace and Energy with a strong geographical footprint in Europe.

HfS's first report in this area focuses on the product engineering segment of engineering services. It "analyzed key engineering services outsourcing market dynamics and evaluated the capabilities of 14 service providers at the organizational, vertical and the service level."

Girish Wardadkar, Senior Vice President and Head of Global Engineering Services at Capgemini said: "We are delighted to be recognized as High Performers for our Global Engineering capabilities in this inaugural HfS report. With our large portfolio of Engineering Services, we offer asset based and consulting led solutions. Our aim is to leverage new age digital engineering solutions to enable a positive user experience in order to meet customers' growing expectations in the connected world."

With over 6000 engineers across Europe, North America and India, Capgemini aims to provide tangible business benefits to customers through its Global Centers of Excellence present in the US, France, Germany, Netherlands and India. Capgemini has over 20 years of experience in delivering world class Engineering Solutions and focuses on industries such as Aerospace & Defense, Automotive, High Tech, Industrial Products, Manufacturing and Oil & Gas.
