Capgemini named a 'Leader' amongst Global Infrastructure Outsourcing Providers by Independent Research Firm

Paris, 4 February 2015 – Capgemini, one of the world's foremost providers of consulting, technology and outsourcing services, today announced it has been named a leader in an independent report about Global Infrastructure Outsourcing by Forrester Research, Inc.

Capgemini was one of 13 providers selected for evaluation in the report entitled "The Forrester Wave, Infrastructure Services Outsourcing, Q1, 2015" and was cited as a "Leader" amongst Global Infrastructure Service Providers assessed against 61 criteria.

The report highlights that: "Capgemini is notable for its strength in Service Integration and Management (SIAM) and is also aggressive in positioning its cloud brokering capability. In Forrester analysis, Capgemini received high marks for its capacity for innovation and its focus on continuous improvement."

"We are proud to be named a Leader by Forrester for our Infrastructure Outsourcing Services. We feel the report acknowledges our Dynamic Services which bridge the gap between legacy systems and innovative technology management, as well as our capabilities in cloud brokering, service integration, orchestration, and aggregation," comments Patrick Nicolet, CEO for Infrastructure Services and member of the Group Management Board at Capgemini. "As organizations seek to gain maximum value from their outsourced services, integration plays a critical role in the delivery of consistent, quality IT services delivered through a global industrialized outsourcing model."
