Capgemini wins two prestigious awards at the Informatica Partner Summit for outstanding performance

Informatica Global Innovation Award and Information Lifecycle Management (ILM) Partner of the Year Award

Paris, 9 February 2015 – Capgemini, one of the world's foremost providers of consulting, technology and outsourcing services, has for the first time won the 2014 Informatica Global Innovation Award and ILM (Information Lifecycle Management) Partner of the Year Award at the annual Informatica Partner Summit which took place in Las Vegas. The awards recognize Capgemini's strong foothold in data management and exceptional performance as an innovative technology partner.

Capgemini was acknowledged for its outstanding contribution in innovation, in particular in recognition of its Data Warehouse Optimization Solution and its ability to build solutions leveraging Big Data platforms. Capgemini was also nominated for its strong executive sponsorship, its dedicated solution development team in India and its management of multi-partner relationships.

As ILM Partner of the Year, Capgemini was singled out for its ability to incubate and execute a successful franchise based on the entire ILM portfolio (including archive and test data management). Informatica also noted its commitment to accreditation and certification.

Andrew Cameron Vice President and Executive Sponsor for Informatica at Capgemini said: "We are proud to have been recognized for our ability to combine our data management and big data skills to co-innovate with Informatica on solutions for their next generation of ILM, MDM and other Data Management technologies. Capgemini has been working closely with Informatica to bring new solutions to market that provide real value to our joint customers and help them achieve their business goals."

“We are delighted to recognize Capgemini with these two awards as a testament to their innovative approach and strong customer relationships. Throughout 2014, they have demonstrated exceptional foresight and a clear understanding of their customers’ needs in terms of data management, insights and analytics.” said Brad Kern, senior vice president of Worldwide Alliances, Informatica.

The Informatica Partner Summit was held on 11th January, 2015 in Las Vegas where they honored their partners for outstanding performance in 2014 across various categories.
