Capgemini Chosen as Strategic Supplier by Swedish Tax Agency (Skatteverket)

Stockholm, Sweden, October 11th, 2007 - Capgemini, one of the world's leaders in consulting, technology and outsourcing services, today announced that the Swedish Tax Agency (Skatteverket) and Capgemini Sweden intend to sign a framework agreement that will deliver strategic development and consultancy services to Skatteverket's internal service provider, VE (Verksamhetsstöd), the Shared Service Centre that will deliver all shared services for Skatteverket including HR, Finance and Control, Facilities Management, Procurement and IT.

According to this four-year renewable agreement, Capgemini will support the development process of the Swedish Tax Agency's (Skatteverket) and the Swedish Enforcement Authority's (Kronofogden) operations and most importantly, strengthen Skatteverket's strategic development projects. Capgemini will also take part in developing VE (Verksamhetsstöd), in order to increase efficiency and strengthen Skatteverket's competencies by assisting with knowledge, experience and support of the system's development. This agreement is estimated to be valued between 5.5 and 16.3 million Euros per year.

"The cooperation with Capgemini will give us the potential to meet the demand for development work from both the Swedish Tax Agency and the Swedish Enforcement Authority." says Alf Nilsson, administrative director at Verksamhetsstöd for Skatteverket and Kronofogden. "With this cooperation we are looking forward to increasing our ability to deliver quality work and to strengthen our position in the development area."

"We are very happy that Skatteverket has chosen us as their strategic supplier and that we get the possibility to contribute our Swedish and international experience and competencies within the tax administrative area to Skatteverket", says Håkan Petersson, responsible for Public Sector at Capgemini, Sweden.

Together the parties will create an organization for Verksamhetsstöd that is more movable and flexible and that can quickly adjust to the company's internal requests.
