Capgemini Receives EMC Partner of the Year Award for Content Management and Archiving

PARIS, December 14, 2009 – Capgemini, one of the world’s foremost providers of consulting, technology and outsourcing services, was recently awarded EMC’s prestigious Partner of the Year award for its Content Management and Archiving (CMA) business at Momentum 2009 in Athens, Greece. As a key global partner, EMC recognized Capgemini for its quality of professional services, engagement and ability to scale, and in particular for demonstrating strong growth over the past 12 months with big project wins in France and the UK.

Paul Nannetti, Capgemini’s newly appointed Business Information Management (BIM) Service Line leader, accepted the award on behalf of Capgemini. In accepting the award, he commented on the significant increase in demand from Capgemini’s clients for content management and archiving solutions over the last year, and the importance Capgemini attributes to its strategic global engagement with EMC in this area.
