Capgemini wins at Brandon Hall Group Excellence Awards

Paris, 22 October 2012 — Capgemini , one of the world’s foremost providers of consulting, technology and outsourcing services, today announced it has been awarded three Learning Excellence Awards by the Brandon Hall Group. Capgemini Italy won Gold for the ‘Best Use of Blended Learning‘ and Capgemini University, part of the Capgemini Group, won Silver for ‘Best Use of Mobile Learning’ for the Capgemini Consulting Sales Program and Bronze for ‘Best in Compliance training’ for the Capgemini Confidentiality Training Program.

Steven Smith, Director, Capgemini University said “We are proud to receive these awards which recognize our global excellence in training and development. It is testament to Capgemini University’s high standards, best practices and innovative learning methods within the industry.”

- The Capgemini ‘Blended Learning Program’, developed with GlobalEnglish Corporation, a leading global enterprise provider of on-demand Business English solutions, uses a combination of online learning with virtual one-on-one coaching sessions to accelerate the development of global employees’ Business English capabilities in Italy.
- The Capgemini ‘Best use of Mobile Learning Program’ was an initiative aimed at providing continuous learning and development to a mobile workforce. It provided online practical modules to Capgemini consultants to help accelerate learning prior to an external workshop.
- The Capgemini ‘Confidentiality Program’ was an important initiative to raise awareness around data confidentiality in light of new mobile technology and stringent data protection laws. The eLearning module provided information to Capgemini employees on how to manage customer data confidentiality.

The Brandon Hall Group Excellence award is a prestigious global awards program. Currently in its 18th year, the awards include several categories that cover functional areas that are responsible for driving performance within an organization. Every year several companies vie for these awards which are often called the 'Academy Awards' by Learning, Talent and Business Executives. The award submissions are judged by eminent people from the industry.
