Paul Nannetti is appointed Global Sales and Portfolio Director of the Capgemini Group

Paris, March 15, 2012 – Paul Hermelin, CEO of the Capgemini Group, one of the world’s foremost providers of consulting, technology and outsourcing services, has appointed Paul Nannetti to the position of Global Sales and Portfolio Director, a role which will see Paul Nannetti join the Group Executive Committee.

In his new role, Paul Nannetti will oversee Sales, Global Sectors and coordination with Global Alliance Partners, in addition to his current responsibilities for the Global Service Lines and Portfolio Management.

Paul Nannetti began his career in 1981 as a Chartered Accountant with Ernst & Young. Following that, he joined IBM in 1984 where he worked in a variety of financial and operational roles. He joined Capgemini in 1994 and has held a number of international leadership positions in the Group. In 2004 he was appointed head of Nordic operations, then Sales Director for Northern Europe and then head of Capgemini Consulting for Continental Europe and APAC. At the end of 2009 he was appointed head of the global Business Information Management Service Line and subsequently took responsibility for all Capgemini’s Global Service Lines and Portfolio Transformation.
