Capgemini appoints Rosemary Stark to Global Sales Officer

Paris, June 12 2017 – Capgemini, a global leader in consulting, technology and outsourcing services, today announced the appointment of Rosemary Stark to Global Sales Officer (GSO) and as such she becomes a member of the Group Executive Committee. Rosemary succeeds Srikanth Iyengar who has left the Group to undertake new challenges. She will report to Paul Hermelin, Chairman and CEO, Capgemini Group. The appointment is with immediate effect.

Paul Hermelin comments: “In her capacity as Global Account Executive for a major UK banking client, as well as most recently as Head of Financial Services for the UK and Ireland, Rosemary has a strong track record of leading multi-discipline teams and developing programs from concept through to successful delivery. I am delighted that she will bring these strategic skills, business experience, and deep client knowledge to her role as GSO for the Group.”

Biography of Rosemary Stark:

Rosemary was appointed Global Sales Officer (GSO) and joined the Group Executive Committee in May 2017. Prior to this Rosemary led Capgemini's Financial Services business in the UK and Ireland from 2015.

During her 20+ years at Capgemini, Rosemary has held various leadership roles including heading Capgemini's UK banking business and prior to that, Capgemini's Application Management and Financial Service businesses in Scotland. Throughout this time Rosemary and her team have delivered a number of large programs covering retail banking, multi-channel sales performance, product development, post-merger integration and customer service improvement. Rosemary specializes in developing senior client relationships and ensuring the delivery of complex programs to support business transformation.

Prior to joining Capgemini Rosemary was an economic analyst in the UK public sector.
