Capgemini Receives 2018 Pega Partner Award for Excellence in Accelerating Growth for Business Development

Paris, June 6, 2018 - Capgemini today announced that it has been recognized for 'Partner Excellence in Accelerating Growth: Business Development' at the 2018 Pega Partner Awards from Pegasystems Inc., the software company empowering customer engagement at the world's leading enterprises. Capgemini was presented with the award today at the annual PegaWorld conference held in Las Vegas.

The award marks the seventh consecutive Pega Partner Award win for Capgemini, demonstrating its excellent collaboration in license sales and increasing pipeline growth, notably in Europe. Capgemini and Pega have been working together for over a decade to significantly transform the customer service and operations domains of their clients' IT landscapes, to drive business value for both their end customers and their company.

"We are proud to have been recognized for the seventh consecutive time as a Pega Partner Award recipient," said Fernando Alvarez, Head of Global Strategic Initiatives and Partners at Capgemini. "Our longstanding partnership with Pega has been based on the joint pursuit of helping our customers drive excellence in sales, marketing, services and operations. To be awarded for Partner Excellence in Accelerating Growth: Business Development confirms that we're delivering tangible results for our customers."

"Capgemini continues to have an integral role within Pega's business, helping our clients on their digital transformation journeys," said Ken Nicolson, vice president, global alliances, Pegasystems. "We are pleased to honor Capgemini for its contributions to our organization and its continued excellence in accelerating growth and business development."
